OVERVIEW

Ramanjit is consistently recognised as a leader in her field. She is ranked as a leading individual in the Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners, where she is described as “an extremely strong advocate on her feet, able to think quickly and deal with any issues that arise without anything fazing her. She is highly tenacious and will fight strongly for her client and their best interests to the utmost, even in the face of strong opposition.”

Ramanjit’s work has a particular emphasis on proceedings involving children in both private and public law cases. Ramanjit has experience of international, cultural, and religious disputes, and issues of relocation and child abduction. She is also in demand for cases involving serious allegations of harm, complex medical evidence, intractable hostility, and parental alienation.

EXPERIENCE

Ramanjit is a committed and skilled family law practitioner. She frequently represents parents, children (directly and through guardians), extended family members, intervenors, and prospective carers/adopters in both public and private law proceedings. She is instructed in the most serious cases, including in the High Court and the Court of Appeal, against both junior and leading counsel. 9-11 Fulwood Place, London, WC1V 6HG Prior to practicing as a barrister, Ramanjit was a solicitor-advocate in private practice specialising in family law. She has also assisted lawyers, through the charity Amicus, with death penalty appeals in the US (Mississippi).

Ramanjit accepts instructions on a direct access basis.

TESTIMONIALS

“Ramanjit is an extremely strong advocate on her feet, able to think quickly and deal with any issues that arise without anything fazing her. She is highly tenacious and will fight strongly for her client and their best interests to the utmost, even in the face of strong opposition.”

Legal 500, 2024

“Ramanjit Kang works well with difficult case facts and clients that are very nervous. A diplomatic barrister with a ‘can do’ attitude, she has a very calm demeanour which lends itself well to both conferences and court settings.”

Chambers and Partners, 2023

“Perceptive, astute and super intelligent. Clients feel very well looked after by her. Her preparation is superb and her cross-examination skills are really good.”
